*true rating = rating at point of discovery
 - ii. All games played by the offending player will be reversed accordingly to the point of discovery of this offence: -

 - end of season's first half, if discovered during the second half of season OR
 - if player was added during window period, then all games played by the offending player since window period
 - iii. If the offending player is removed but not suspended for the current season, the player may appeal to rejoin the season into a different team and of a higher division at the re-rated rating (true rating) during Window Period.

- (g) The Offending player or the team captain may file an appeal. The League management will only evaluate such appeal on a case-by-case basis.
- (h) The team captains are reminded to take note of their team players league rating. Either the captain or the player should request for a rating adjustment any time during the season, if their performance have improved much faster than their league rating. This will avoid the player from being caught or accused as a sandbagger.
